Craiglure – The Idyllic Holiday Cottage

The Property

Gatehouse of Fleet 1.2 miles. A delightful detached cottage, superbly located near the village of Gatehouse of Fleet in the middle of beautiful Dumfries & Galloway countryside. With spectacular open views and a 3/4-acre garden, Craiglure is ideal for families seeking a spacious cottage amidst lovely scenery.

Set over the ground floor and with panoramic views from both a decked terrace and a conservatory, the cottage boasts two double bedrooms, one with an en-suite shower room, supplemented by a single bedroom. A large kitchen leads to a dining area and a sitting area with open fire.

Outside is a large sloping garden with a decked terrace and open views over the garden to the fields and hills beyond. A comfortable conservatory allows you to enjoy the surrounding countryside, even when the weather is less than perfect.

At just over a mile from the pretty town of Gatehouse of Fleet with its array of pubs, restaurants and shops, this cottage is ideally located to explore this charming corner of Scotland. The Mill on the Fleet Visitor Centre, Cally Gardens with over 4000 plant species, as well as the nearby sandy beaches, fishing, walking and mountain biking ensure Craiglure can be enjoyed throughout the year.

GATEHOUSE OF FLEET AND THE SURROUNDING AREA

Peaceful in its pastel colours, the small country town of Gatehouse of Fleet lies on the Solway Firth, in the midst of Dumfries & Galloway countryside, with good sandy beaches a five-minute drive away. The town was founded in the 1760s as a mill community, and today the nearby Mill on the Fleet - a visitor centre in a former bobbin mill - tells the tale of Gatehouse’s cotton-spinning days. Today, there are several shops in the town including a small supermarket, chemist, bank and Post Office, along with two book/gift shops, a kilt-making centre and two cafes. All four pubs in the town have restaurant facilities and welcome children. Castle Douglas, a 15-minute drive away, offers an extensive range of shops, Threave Gardens and boating on Carlingwark Loch.

Doggie Code of Conduct

We welcome our canine friends and hope they enjoy their holiday with us. However, please bear in mind the cottage is used by other guests and we request that dogs and their owners please follow our Doggie Code of Conduct. Thank you.

Dogs are not allowed in the bedrooms. These areas are to remain dog free.

Please scoop the poop in all areas for hygiene purposes.

Please do not leave dogs unattended in the cottage for long periods.

Please prevent your dog soiling in the cottage. We do have cleaning fluids for those accidents.

The garden is enclosed, to allow dogs to be outside in a safe environment. This also allows your dog to have that extra bit of Scottish fresh air!

There are deer and red squirrels and other wildlife in the area. Please keep your dogs under control at all times.

Thank you for your cooperation.
